

February 27, 2024 | 5:30-8:30pm

30th Annual INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS FORUM & NETWORKING EVENING

The Geopolitical Climate & Implications for International Business

Given the current geopolitical crises, the exponential emergence of new technologies, the continued challenges to global supply chains and the acceleration of extreme weather events, how are international businesses coping and planning within these new parameters?

The panel discussion with international experts, will be moderated by Doug Banks, Executive Editor, Boston Business Journal.

Panel topics include:

- Geopolitical/Economic Landscape
- Compliance Issues
- Export/Imports/Supply Chain
- Sustainability/Climate
- Cybersecurity

To view the full list of speakers, agenda, and to learn more click here.

RSVP HERE

For a list of participating associations, please visit: www.gbane.org.

Cost: $35, participating association members, $50 non-members + fees. Students are free with ID.

Pre-registration is a must for security reasons.

This event draws attendees from across the NE states involved in international trade.

EVENT SPEAKERS

Doug Banks
Boston Business
Journal

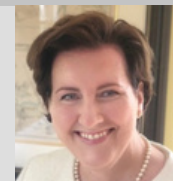

Jerry Alderman
Marsh McLennan

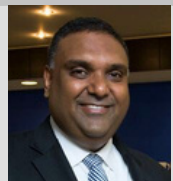

James Colimon
City of Boston

Shahrz Mohtadi
Suffolk University

Paula Murphy
MA Export Center

Jeevan Ramapriya
MOITI

Betty Robson
JF Moran

Ken Vacovec
Vacovec, Mayotte
& Singer LLP

Amy Zeng
Sawyer Business
School

Interested in being a Sponsor or Exhibitor?

This forum presents a unique opportunity to showcase your product to companies involved in cross-border trade.

Contact info@gbane.org for details.

A limited number of exhibit tables are available.

Event host:

Event location:

Suffolk University Law School
120 Tremont Street, Boston, MA 02108
Opposite Park Street T stop